'KASPAR HAUSER'S DEED OF LOVE'

A Festival for the Americas and Beyond!

April 15-18, 2027

The Path of Sacrifice, by Greg Tricker

The Festival Is In-Person

at Camphill Village Copake, Triform Camphill Community and Camphill Ghent

And It Is Fully and Professionally Hybrid!

We Invite Interested Groups to Host Synchronous Festivals ~ Participating in the New York Festival And Offering Local Events!

The Festival features lectures by Eckart Böhmer, Richard Steel and Carrie Schuchardt.

Carlo Pietzner's play, And from the Night, Kaspar, will be performed. And Karl König's story of Kaspar Hauser, Also, A Christmas Story will be performed in puppet theatre.

The Festival can awaken us to Kaspar through art – eurythmy, music, song, stories and poetry! And we will meet one another in conversation.

To Host A Synchronous Festival contact:

karlkoeniginstitute@camphill.org

An Individual Sign-up Form Will Be Sent Closer to the Festival Date.

The Kaspar Hauser Festival Is Sponsored by the Karl König Institute, the Kaspar Hauser Research Circle and the Camphill Communities.

Contributions in Support of the Festival Are Gratefully Received!
